What this counselling service offers

This is an opportunity for you to come and explore areas of your life you may not have considered as important till now.

It could be that you are going through a tough time and just need some guidance in finding direction. Or it could be that there has been a lingering unresolved issue and now is the time to deal with it.

I offer a wide range of help to cater for varying spiritual needs as well as to offer restoration and relief.

We will be working together on your issues. A word for this is collaborative. Please come prepared to work at your problems, as I support you through the process.

I also encourage journaling i.e. making notes during and between sessions, notes that are significant to the next step in your recovery.
